Turks & Caicos
a haven where fun dwells

Want to have that sunset catamaran cruise and snorkelling around a pristine coral reef? Take that nature walk on dry land and enjoy the very best of sea food and conch? We’ve got the special place for you to visit this holiday; the beautiful island of "Turks and Caicos".

Lying 5/5 miles southeast of Miami and 39 miles south east of the Atlantic Ocean, this wondrous destination is home to some of the best beaches in the world, breathtaking hues, legendary diving, snorkelling and fishing. From its world class hotels, spas, and restaurants to less crowded beaches and vibrant coral reefs, beauty is all that lingers in the mouth of visitors once a visit to the Turks and Caicos is accomplished.

One beauty about the Turks and Caicos is that you can design your vacation to suit your needs. Be it on land or below the water, you’ll relax in the unique serenity, hospitality and beauty of the islands at Turks and Caicos. The islands there offer a variety of great resorts where relaxation is the primary focus. The delicious cuisines that are up for grab in these islands, just makes the holiday a perfect delight. Turks and Caicos cuisines is based primarily around sea food, especially conch and in your visit to this destination, try out the conch fritters and the conch salad dishes and I bet you sure can’t get enough of them.

Sport lovers, are not left out in the fun of this island. The island has one of the longest coral reefs in the world, making it a premier diving destination and for adrenaline junkies, sky diving is an ideal rush for adventure. While for those that are acrophobic, the dry land gives an opportunity for great golfing, football and cricket (which is the national sport).

Also, the Turks and Caicos Islands are most well-known for reggae music. The islands are known for their annual Music and Cultural Festival showcasing many local talents and other dynamic performances by many music celebrities from around the Caribbean and United States.

The locals love their slice of paradise, and they are anxious for you to love it just as much. Turks Islanders are quick to share their favourite secret beaches and dining spots. And given all that Turks & Caicos has to offer, you undoubtedly will find your own favourite spots, too. The beaches there rank among the Caribbean’s very best. These beaches are the kind you dream of when you think of a sun holiday. Here, you can easily relax in a beach chair and listen to the eb and flow of the waves.

Stretch out on the beach for an afternoon nap. Watch the sunset and take in the feeling of silky sand between your toes. You’ll feel right at home with the swaying palm trees and cooling sea breezes. Do nothing, do a little or do it all, the island welcomes all types of visitors and hospitality is home to all.

The Turks & Caicos Islands beckon you to an undiscovered Caribbean experience the very moment you step into this breath taking destination. So get ready to have that fun of your life when the visit to the beautiful islands of Turks and Caicos is imminent.

Brazil

Holiday destination for everyone

When holiday comes to mind, it is quite easy for one think only of the usual holiday activities such as swimming, relaxing by the beach, shopping, eating out, sun bathing and other regular activity that depicts leisure. Hardly would one really experience the country in its sense. Heading to a country like Brazil, the experience is completely different.

Being the fifth largest country in the world, this great country is a unique combination of diverse culture and different scenery coming together to give her the perfect identity. Brazil is a country of stretches of unexplored rainforest, islands with divine tropical beaches, and endless rivers.

One of the best ways to enjoy a lifelong holiday in Brazil is by traveling between the amazing villages and cities and witness firsthand how the Brazilians enjoy every passing day. Known for their passion for music and dance, the Brazilians definitely knows how to make a worried mind become merry. The love for music can never be compared and not only do they just love music, they know how to give the perfect dance to a good rhythm.

There is always something to satisfy every taste in Brazil. For a great nature lover, the Pantanal and/or the Amazon is just the place to quench your thirst. The Amazon, being the world’s largest biological reserve habitats one-third of all living species on the earth and is crossed by 10 of the world’s 20 largest rivers, including the River Amazon. The Pantanal also gives you the opportunity to watch, photograph and film animals in their natural habitat.

For sports lovers, Brazil is just the place to visit. With her passion for football, the country won herself the privilege to host the 2014 FIFA Football World Cup. If you are also in for trekking, climbing or hiking, the Atlantic Rainforest is the place to be.

Take a culinary journey of Brazil. Feel how it is to be in heaven of great food and wonderful drinks. Visit a Churrascaria and have a taste of freshly sliced meats coupled with guarana; the country’s favorite drink while seating on a golden sand and watching the pristine clear blue water.

Despite having different seasons in different parts, the best time to visit Brazil to her gifts of nature is from October through December when the weather is cool and calm and visitors are lesser during this period. Not only is there good weather in Brazil there is also a great deal of attractions to see. Brazil holidays are just the type of experience that would offer a true taste of culture and most importantly, open you to a different world of people, who delight visitors with their joy and energy.
